BRUTUS' SPEECH ON THE DEATH OF CESAR.

ROMANS, COUNTRYMEN, AND LOVERS,

HEAR me, for my cause; and be silent, that you may hear. Believe me, for mine honor; and have respect for mine honor, that you may believe. Censure me, in your wisdom; and awake your senses, that you may the better judge.

2. If there be any in this assembly, any dear friend of Cesar, to him I say, that Brutus' love to Cesar was no less than his. If then, that friend demand, why Brutus rose against Cesar, this is my answer; not that I loved Cesar less, but that I loved Rome more.

3. Had you rather Cesar were living, and die all slaves; than that Cesar were dead, to live all freemen?

BRUTUS' SPEECH ON THE DEATH OF CESAR.

ROMANS, COUNTRYMEN, AND LOVERS,

HEAR me, for my cauſe; and be ſilent, that you may hear. Believe me, for mine honor; and have reſpect for mine honor, that you may believe. Cenſure me, in your wiſdom; and awake your ſenſes, that you may the better judge.

2. If there be any in this aſſembly, any dear friend of Ceſar, to him I ſay, that Brutus' love to Ceſar was no leſs than his. If then, that friend demand, why Brutus roſe againſt Ceſar, this is my anſwer; not that I loved Ceſar leſs, but that I loved Rome more.

3. Had you rather Ceſar were living, and die all ſlaves; than that Ceſar were dead, to live all freemen? As Ceſar loved me, I weep for him; as he was fortunate, I rejoice at it; as he was valiant, I honor him; but as he was ambitious, I ſlew him. There are tears for his love; joy for his fortune; honor for his valor; and death for his ambition. Who is here ſo baſe, that would be a bondman? If any, ſpeak; for him have I offended. Who is here ſo rude, that would not be a Roman? If any, ſpeak; for him have I offended. Who is here ſo vile, that will not love his country? If any, ſpeak; for him have I offended. I pauſe for a reply.

And, arm'd himself in panoply complete
Of heav'nly temper, furnishes with arms
Bright as his own, and trains by every rule
Of holy discipline, to glorious war,
The sacramental host of God's elect.

4. I venerate the man, whose heart is warm,
Whose hands are pure, whose doctrine and whose life
Coincident, exhibit lucid proof
That he is honest in the sacred cause.
To such I render ~~more than~~ mere respect,
Whose actions say that they respect themselves.

5. But loose in morals, and in manners vain;
In conversation frivolous, in dress
Extreme, at once rapacious and profuse,
Frequent in park, with lady at his side,
Ambling and prattling scandal as he goes;
But rare at home, and never at his books,
Or with his pen, save when he scrawls a card;
[illegible] routs, [illegible] round
